The Food for Poultry in the Winter.

Much time and money have been spent in what seems the almost vain endeavor to make hens produce eggs in cold weather. It requires but little experience with poultry to learn the fact that, under ordinary circumstances, hens cannot produce as many eggs in winter as in summer. Summer is the natural time for the laying of eggs, and in order to increase winter production there must be reproduced for the fowls as nearly as possible the conditions that exist in summer. Mrs. John J. Layzell of Brandon, Vt., has evidently succeeded
